

... David Gracey ...

David Gracey is the founder and president of Network 1 Consulting, where he partners with small businesses in implementing IT customized to their strategic goals. Dedicated to educating others on the many benefits technology offers their businesses, David is a regular speaker for professional groups and organizations including the Atlanta Bar Association, Vistage, the Taylor Business Group and the N-Able Technologies Conference. Additionally, David provides internal training and education for private companies.

David's thought leadership and expertise is widely recognized in the business community; his articles and interviews with him have appeared in Atlanta Hospital News and Healthcare Report, International Legal Technology Association Communications Technologies, Physicians Practice, American Bar Association Journal, Georgia Medical Group Management Association and The Wall Street Journal. He is also a regular contributor for Network 1's popular series of Tuesday Tips.

dgracey@network1consulting.com

---

From Lunch & Learns to radio interviews and panel discussions to conference presentations, David provides insight to audiences on a variety of IT topics including:

- IT Best Practices for Your Industry
- Technology to Help You Grow Your Business
- IT and Your Company Culture
- IT Security for the Small Business

Contact David today to arrange a presentation customized for the specific needs and interests of the audience at your next event.